Occupied Aaiún, Dec 21, 2021 (SPS) - The Moroccan occupation authorities have deprived the Saharawi political prisoner Abdalla Luali Lejfauni of his right to communicate with the outside of the prison, confiscating all letters and communications that he has sent to international human rights organizations and associations that defend the right of the Saharawi people to self-determination.

According to sources from the League for the Protection of Sahrawi Prisoners in Moroccan Prisons, the Kunetra prison administration has refused to give the Saharawi political prisoner Abdalla Luali Lejfauni his correspondence because it contains information on the circumstances of his imprisonment and the suffering he suffers within prison, including the deprivation of their most basic and legitimate rights.SPS
