

SPLA launch new attacks against Moroccan occupation forces positions

SPS 08/12/2021 - 15:45

Tweet

Weiterempfehlen

Bir Lehlu (Sahrawi Republic), Dec 08, 2021 (SPS) - The units of the Saharawi People's Liberation Army (SPLA) launched new attacks on Tuesday against various targets of the Moroccan occupation forces at different points of their positions throughout from the Wall of Shame.

According to War Report No. 390 made public by the Ministry of National Defense, Tuesday, December 7, 2021, units of our army have taken the following actions:

- Bombings against the observation point of the 68 Battalion located in the Adeim Um Ajlud region, in the Auserd sector.
- Bombings against the base N°18 of the 68 Battalion located in the Adeim Um Ajlud and Galb An-nas region, in the Auserd sector.
- Bombardments against enemy forces positioned in the Laagad region and Sabjat Tanuchad, in the Mahbes sector.

The War Report also adds that the SPLA units had concentrated, Monday, December 6, 2021, their artillery fires against the positions of the occupation forces located in the regions of Gararat Al-Attasa and Rus Asabti, in Mahbes, and Um Dagan, in Bagari.SPS