Palmas de Mallorca (Balearic Islands), Feb 10, 2022 (SPS)- The president of the Balearic Islands, Francina Armengol, today received the Minister for Cooperation of the Saharawi Republic (SADR), Fatma Mehdi, accompanied by the delegate in Spain , Abdulah Arabi, and the delegate in the Balearic Islands, Hmudi Lebsir, to exchange on the current situation of the Saharawi people and the new situation in the territory as a result of the violation of the ceasefire by Morocco in Western Sahara and resumption of the war .

Francina Armengol has reaffirmed that the meeting is part of the broad commitment to the Saharawi people and adherence to international law, pointing out that the Balearic political and humanitarian support for the Saharawi people responds to a consensus of the citizens, historically linked to the Saharawi people.

Along the same lines, the president also expressed concern about the inaction of Spain and the international community in the face of the decolonization process.

In the hearing held at the headquarters of the Government, the Saharawi official addressed in detail the current scenario, marked by war and the health pandemic, in the Saharawi refugee camps and in the occupied areas.SPS
