President of Republic informs African leaders on dangerous developments following Morocco's violation of ceasefire

SPS 06/02/2022 - 07:12

Addis Ababa, 6 February 2022 (SPS) - President of the Republic, Secretary General of the Polisario Front, Brahim Ghali, has informed African leaders of the successive and dangerous developments recorded in Western Sahara after November 13, 2020, the date of violation of the ceasefire agreement by the Makhzen regime.

Intervening in the debate on the report of the Peace and Security Council (PSC) of the AU submitted to the 35th Summit of Heads of State and Government of the AU, President Ghali stressed that "the Sahrawi Republic wishes to express its deep concern over the successive and dangerous developments in Western Sahara after November 13, 2020, the date of the violation of the ceasefire agreement by the Kingdom of Morocco and the illegal military occupation of several parts of the territory of the Sahrawi Republic.

"The Moroccan forces have targeted defenseless Sahrawi civilians and civilians from neighboring countries with sophisticated weapons, which suggests a policy of systemic extermination, and the Sahrawi territories under Moroccan occupation have seen an upsurge in human rights violations, as evidenced by the abuse inflicted on the Sahrawi citizen Sultana Khaya and her family, not to mention the plundering of Sahrawi natural wealth.

"The legal status of Western Sahara is becoming clearer day by day and has been further reinforced by the decision of the Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) in September 2021 annulling the agreements concluded by the European Commission with the Kingdom of Morocco relating to Western Sahara, deemed illegal in the sense that Morocco and Western Sahara are two separate and distinct territories," he added.

The President of the Republic is taking part in the work of the 35th Summit of African Union Heads of State and Government, held Saturday and Sunday at the African Union Headquarters in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

He is accompanied by a delegation comprising Minister of Information, Government spokesperson, Hamada Salma, Counsellor to the Presidency of the Republic, Abdati Brika, Legal Counsellor to the Presidency of the Republic, Ahmed Sid Ali, Ambassador to South Africa, Mohamed Yaslam Bessat, Ambassador to Ethiopia and Permanent Representative to the African Union, Lamine Baali.
